

FAMILIES IN TRANSITION

Are you in the midst of a divorce or a separation? Are you concerned about the impact that this may have on your children? Do you know how to talk to your child about your marital situation? Do your children know how to talk to you about their concerns and fears? Do you have the much-needed support YOU deserve for your experience?

Through a 6-week curriculum-based, Families in Transition program, Discovery Counseling Center will offer concurrent group sessions for parents and children in which issues around loss, communication and support will be discussed and examined. Discovery Counseling Center's goal is to strengthen families affected by divorce and separation by decreasing negative emotions and behaviors, reducing conflicts and alienation, while improving the well-being of children and their parents.
